

COMPANY POLICY

PowerTronik is active in industrial automation and electronic movement systems with the primary concern of satisfying the requirements of the interested parties and the continuous improvement of the Quality, Environment, Occupational Safety & Health Management System and Information Security Management

In this context, it is a commitment for the management that the Company:

- monitors, updates and implements the legal, regulatory and other applicable requirements that govern it,
- provides the appropriate resources for the provision of the products and services produced, focusing on the requirements and satisfaction of customers, aiming at long-term cooperation with them, without errors, complaints and always with respect to the information security policies.
- provides the appropriate resources to protect the environment from pollution due to its activities and processes, promotes the sustainable use of these resources as far as possible as well as recycling, aiming to contribute to the reduction of climate change and the protection of biodiversity and ecosystems, in any way that directly or indirectly affects them,
- provides the appropriate resources to protect the health and safety of employees, associates and third parties due to its activities and processes, promotes a healthy and safe working environment for all those involved in its processes and activities, aiming to contribute to the reduction of occupational accidents and diseases with the aim of no accident and no harm to humans,
- provides the appropriate resources to protect confidentiality, integrity and availability of records and data,
- provides the appropriate resources for the education and continuous training of the staff, the information, consultation and participation of the employees on issues related to the Integrated Management System, as well as on individual issues related to the continuous improvement of the individual processes and activities of the Company.
- is committed to the proper implementation, maintenance, control and continuous improvement of the Integrated Management System it has developed in accordance with the standards ISO 9001: 2015, ISO 14001: 2015, ISO 45001: 2018 & ISO 27001: 2022 which is harmonized with its needs and objectives, as well as with the needs and expectations of its stakeholders,
- this policy is available to all internal and external interested parties of the company, is communicated wherever and whenever requested, revised whenever deemed necessary and is applied through continuous information, training and appropriateness of the competence of its staff, in all its structures.

Nikos Avlogiaris
Legal Representative of the company